Didsbury Beats Olds

The Didsbury hockey team went to Olds Monday night and brought back the bacon by a score of 5-3. It was hockey all the way through. In spite of Olds trying to strengthen their team by putting on new players, the locals were not to be resisted, and played a brilliant game. Referee Pym was right on the job and this win shows that, given a square deal, the locals are more than able to hold their own.

Didsbury has to win all their games from now on to come into the home stretch, but they can do it. Watch 'em!

A Declaration to All Canadians

Five Christian communions, Anglican, Baptist, Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian declare with united voice that the Gospel of Love as proclaimed by Jesus Christ is the one great need of Canada today. If faithfully practised Christianity can root out the evils of materialism and conserve the spiritual values revealed by the war.

The Forward Movement.

Each communion named is in the midst of a forward movement to stimulate church members to a livelier faith and activity and to urge all men to consider their personal responsibility to the national well being. The decision is yours. Test the reality of prayer and the joy of service. Let Christianity have a fair trial in you, it will give your life direction, purpose and power.

Holland Prepares Reply to Demand Of the Allies

The Hague.—The reply of the Dutch government to the demand of the allied powers that the former German emperor be given up to them for trial is being drafted and will be forwarded shortly to the Dutch minister at Paris for communication to the allies.

Although Holland is determined to stick closely to diplomatic precedent and not publish nor intimate the text of the reply until it is delivered, there is apparently no cause at the present time to make any change in the predictions of the Dutch newspapers that the Dutch government will decline to accede to the demand.

The Associated Press was informed by a high official that the former German emperor had been in no way consulted about the reply, nor had he even been officially informed of the demand for his extradition.

The Vaderland says: "The Dutch government will probably answer that it is her international duty to refuse extradition. It will say that no government has any sympathy with the kaiser, but that it is led by considerations of its law, and the Dutch constitution forbids extradition."

The Nieuw Courant, in an editorial, considers the possibility of condemning former Emperor William by default.

"It is a great pity that the allies lack the moral courage to own up to that they have made a mistake," says the newspaper.

Giving a promise to try the kaiser by default when Holland shall have refused to permit his extradition is nothing but sensational humbug. The kaiser himself is not dangerous, but he may be the tool of others.

"If the allies could make the Dutch government see the danger of the kaiser staying near the German frontier, another residence might be assigned to him, the Dutch government offering as an alternative his return to Germany. This might be asked without a preceding trial."

British Interests in Mexico

U.S. Oil Men Have Difficulties Through Not Complying With the Law

Mexico City.—Reports reaching Mexico City that the Mexican Government was favoring British oil companies were denied by Joaquin Santalla, chief of the oil bureau of the department of industry, commerce and labor. He asserted American oil companies were encountering difficulties because "they have not shown a disposition to comply with the regulations of the oil decree of Jan. 18, 1918, and also constitutional provisions regarding the necessity of submitting to Mexican laws."

On the other hand, British companies are declared by Senor Santalla to be encountering no difficulties.

British companies, the bureau chief said, are pushing their work vigorously "because they have complied with every governmental regulation relating to incorporation under Mexican laws, and have followed the regulations governing oil land holdings."

Not Obligated to Surrender

Berlin.—In response to an inquiry as to what he advised those persons to do whose names are on the extradition list of the entente, Gen. Ludendorff, former first quartermaster general, said:

"Nobody is obliged to surrender himself voluntarily. It is no breach of honor to place one's self outside the pale of arrest."

Ontario to Ask for Referendum

Toronto.—The Ontario government will be asked by the Ontario referendum committee to request the Dominion government to allow the taking of a vote in this province on the question of the importation of liquor into Ontario, the vote to be taken at the earliest possible date, under the terms of the recent federal legislation thereon.

Husband's Love Worth

Million Dollars

Woman Sues Another for Alienating Husband's Affection

New York.—Charged with alienating the affections of the late Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company, Mrs. Amanda C. Thomas, residuary legatee of his estate, was made the defendant in a $1,000,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Milla Shonts, widow of the railway president, whom she married in 1881.

In 1906, Mrs. Shonts alleges, Mrs. Thomas became acquainted with her husband and thereafter succeeded in gaining his affections, and by her artifices and wiles enticed Theodore P. Shonts from the society of the plaintiff.

Advance Guard of

German Diplomats

Secretaries and Attaches Take Up Residence in Paris

Paris.—The advance guard of the German diplomatic mission to Paris has arrived here. It comprises secretaries and attaches, who took up their residence in the former German embassy. Wilhelm Meyer, who is to be the German ambassador, is due to reach Paris soon. Baron von Treulder, minister plenipotentiary, delegate to the peace conference and an expert on reparations questions, accompanied the mission.

Italy Under Martial Law

General Railway Strike Has Tied Up the Country

Paris.—Northern and Central Italy are in the grip of a general railway strike, but Southern Italy is not so seriously affected, according to the Turin correspondent of the Petit Parisien. The Italian government was able to run a few trains over the principal lines, the trains being heavily guarded by troops armed with machine guns.

Martial law is enforced in the principal cities of the country, the streets of which are patrolled by cavalry and are under the guns of artillery units. It is said. Stores, theatres, and all places of business are ordered to close at eight o'clock in the evening, and everyone is forbidden to use automobiles or bicycles. Police authorities have ordered the magnets of all automobiles confiscated to prevent the strikers using the machines.

Huns to Answer for Crimes

Final List Is Supposed to Contain Somewhat Less Than 500 Names

Paris.—The final list of Germans whose extradition will be asked by the allies, as approved by the supreme council, is supposed to contain somewhat less than 500 names out of the original 1,400 accused by the different allies.

It is understood the list has not yet been delivered to the Germans, and the delay in handing it over is taken in some quarters to indicate that negotiations are still in progress. The Germans are insisting strongly upon trial of the accused in their courts.

Lady Astor May Second Address

London.—Suggestions have been made that Lady Astor, the only woman member of the House of Commons, be called upon to move or second the address replying to the King's speech from the throne on the occasion of the reopening of parliament on February 10. The Mirror speculates whether Lady Astor, in case she is chosen for either place, will wear full court dress in accordance with the tradition which prescribes that the member making the motion or seconding it shall wear a uniform or court costume.

Prince Reaffirms Intention Of Re-visiting Canada

Says He Is Still Receiving Large Mail, But Not All From Fair Sex

London.—The Prince of Wales was the guest at a large and enthusiastic dinner of the Pilgrims. More than three hundred persons were present. The Prince made a speech, partly serious, partly humorous. With some modesty he delivered personal touches here and there and had a clamorous reception. The Prince reaffirmed his intention to revisit Canada, particularly the middle and far west, saying that the best proof that one had enjoyed a visit was his earnest desire to repeat it. He remarked:

"I am still receiving a large amount of mail from the United States—and not all of it from the fair sex,—which provoked great amusement. Another spontaneous touch was given to the Prince. Referring to the chairman's remark that the Prince, after his tour, was again domiciled as a citizen of England, His Royal Highness said:

"I hope I am domiciled as a citizen of the British Empire."

Wearing the broad ribbon of the Garter and his war medals, the Prince shook hands with all the guests as they arrived.

"My right hand is in a pretty bad condition from hand-baling. I hope the Pilgrims won't mind if I use my left," he remarked to the chairman, Lord Desborough, exhibiting his right hand, which was red and swollen. It was noted, however, that to the older man he gave his right hand, while to the rank and file he gave his left.

Expect Immigration Of Carpet Weavers

Are Attracted to Canada By Higher Wages and Lower Cost of Living

London.—Passengers on board the Scandinavian, leaving Liverpool, included carpet weavers from Halifax and Kidderminster, said to be attracted towards Canada by higher wages. Representatives of Canadian manufacturers state that in addition to finding higher wages, the prospects for the weavers were brighter in Canada, because food was cheaper than in England.

There also appears a letter from Bishop Perrin, of Wilkesbarre, and formerly of British Columbia, who writes on behalf of the Church Emigration Society, appealing for help for clergy who wish to settle in the British dominions.

An overseas appointment, adds the bishop, though it may not mean much in increased pay, frequently provides better openings for children. It is hard that clergy should miss this chance for lack of a comparatively small sum.

Semionoff Assuming Rulership

Commander of All-Russian Armies Has Taken Control of Siberia

Harbin, Siberia.—Gen. Semionoff, commander-in-chief of the all-Russian armies, has issued a proclamation declaring that he has assumed the supreme rulership of Siberia. According to Gen. Semionoff's representative, his assumption of supreme power is only temporary and is due to the fact that the whereabouts of Admiral Kolchak is unknown.

Soldiers' Pay in England

London.—Dissatisfaction is being shown by Canadian soldiers still here that their payments are being made in English currency with a consequent loss of exchange. This they allege is contrary to enlistment conditions. At a meeting here, they appointed a committee of nine to request that Canadian currency be used in future, and to recover back balances. If necessary, they will enforce their rights by constitutional procedure.

Ship $1,500,000 Gold Into India

New York.—Withdrawal of $1,500,000 gold coin from the sub-treasury for shipment to India excited considerable interest among the international bankers. The shippers are understood to represent a British bank with connections in India, Australia and China.

General Strike in Canada Proposed

Vote Taken Favors Action as Protest Against Conviction of Reoit

Winnipeg.—A vote favoring a general strike throughout the length and breadth of Canada as a protest against the trial and conviction of R. D. Russell, strike leader, was adopted at last Sunday's closed meeting of local labor bodies, under the auspices of the Labor Defence League. H. Kemper, business agent, announced. It was decided, however, to bring the matter to the attention of British Labor leaders. Another meeting to discuss this matter will be held.

Asquith Once Again

Is A Candidate

Former Premier Will Probably Be Faced With Exciting Struggle

London.—Ex-Premier Asquith is to return to parliament through the by-elections in the Paisley constituency, arising out of the death of Sir J. McCallum. The local Liberals adopted Mr. Asquith as their candidate. Already a Labor candidate, J. John Simon, former Home Secretary and Coalitionist had previously decided not to contest the seat if Mr. Asquith were selected, there is likely to be a straight fight between the Liberal and Labor candidates unless, as is considered improbable, the Unionists run a man.

In view of the recent Sen. Valley (West Riding of Yorkshire) by-election, when the Laborite, Tom Myers, won over the Liberal candidate, Sir John Simon, former Home Secretary and further because at a general election Mr. Bigger was very few votes behind McCallum, the struggle should prove an exciting one.

Offers of Aid for Austria

Received Daily By Government From Points in Every Province

Ottawa.—Offers of assistance for the starving populations of Austria are being received daily by the government. They come from points in every province. At a number of centres comforts are being collected. The government while welcoming all private assistance, is awaiting further communication from the imperial authorities before announcing its policy. The British government has suggested shipment by the Dominion of a cargo of wheat or flour, with participation in the establishment of credit.

The British government is supplementing dollar for dollar all contributions raised by private effort in the United Kingdom.

Clash in Siberia

Pekin.—Sanguinary conflicts between the Czech forces and troops of General Semionoff, commander-in-chief of the all-Russian armies, are reported to have occurred at the trans-Siberian railway stations of Bukht, Khatkiska and Mirovaia, in the Lake Baikal region. The Czechs, it is said, do not regard the Semionoff men as serious, owing to the smallness of his forces. The Semionoff troops under General Skripoff have been disbanded and General Skripoff arrested by order of Major-General Jules Janin, commander of the Czechs. This action was taken because Skripoff had operated against the Czechs.

Every man should know something about law, and if he knows enough to keep out of it he is a pretty good lawyer.

Dublin.—Assistant Commissioner of Police Redmond was shot and killed in Flanagan street, one of Dublin's main thoroughfares.

When assisted, Mr. Redmond endeavored to draw his own pistol, but was unable to do so before he was shot down. He was found gripping his pistol, which was in his pocket. Mr. Redmond recently was brought to Dublin from Belfast, where he had been a successful consular officer, to assist in co-ordinating the Dublin police, and to ensure increased efficiency in the detective service in view of the murder of several policemen, for which no arrests have been made.

Thurles.—Another constable was shot and badly wounded while returning to his home here. Armed squads later searched the district and entered several houses, looking for the assassins of the constable, and also held up and questioned pedestrians. No arrests were made.

Several episodes of this kind during the evening were followed by volleys from the rifles of the police.

The shooting occurred within a few yards of the hotel where Mr. Redmond was stopping. This hotel is almost opposite the recently closed Sinn Fein headquarters. The dead man was 40 years of age and had made great changes in the Dublin detective department, having placed in it several men from the north of Ireland.

London.—A dispatch from Thurles says the disturbance there arose out of the retaliation of the shooting of a constable. In some cases hand grenades were thrown into houses and shots fired through doors and windows.

"The residence of Charles Culhane, president of the Sinn Fein club," says the dispatch, "was roughly treated. Every pane of glass in the lower part of the house was smashed and bullets passed through the upstairs windows and smashed windows and furniture. Policemen burst in the hall door and searched the house for Culhane, but he had left, declaring that he would be a dead man if he were found."

The English parliamentary labor delegates arrived in Thurles in the midst of the excitement. The populace thronged the streets, discussing the night's disorders. The police maintain order, and are careful not to fall on account of the attack upon their comrade, Constable Finney, who is now in a Dublin hospital. It is believed he will die.

No Sugar Shortage in Russia

Enormous Store in Ukraine Ready for Export When Blockade Lifted

Washington.—Four hundred million pounds of sugar, 20,000,000 bushels of wheat and large quantities of hides and other materials, stored in the Ukraine, will be made available for the markets of the world when the general blockade of Russia is lifted, according to an announcement by the Ukrainian Mission in America. "Ukraine needs medicines, surgical instruments, clothing and agricultural machinery," according to the mission, which said the lack of medicines and clothing alone had reduced to misery great areas of the Ukraine. It was added that the receipt of needed supplies would greatly assist the Ukrainians in fighting the Bolsheviks.

German Horse Market

Berlin.—Historic Koenigsplatz was converted into a horse market. This market will be conducted by the city of Berlin in pursuance to the provisions of the Versailles treaty, which calls for delivery of horses to France and Belgium. Owners of horses in this city were threatened with heavy money fines if they failed to make an appearance, and the result was a gathering of horses of all breeds. As the general average was below the required standard, most of the animals were returned to owners. The better class of steeds is being held back in the rural and farming districts.

A FEW THINGS WE NOTICED IN EUROPE

Mrs. D. C. Ely

The writer is well aware that, in lands so different from our own, one is apt to see at first only those things which are strange and incongruous.

The very first day in France, we saw something we had never seen before—a child between two or three years of age crying or being pleading at first, and then, failing to get any, flying into a rage.

No one but ourselves seemed to think it at all strange. "Poor child, poor child," said one pityingly, "she wants beer." "I don't blame her," said another, "I want it as badly as any child."

The parents were complaining bitterly that the train did not stop to let them get off and on any more.

No wonder the word says: "Train up a child in the way he should go." We trembled for the future of this little girl. The American boys seem to have made a slight impression, a demanding lemonade. I hope they were more successful in getting it than we were.

"I don't see why the Americans are making such a fuss over prohibition," said a clerk at a hotel in Paris. "All who here keep asking for lemonade. It seems to me they must be a nation of lemonade drinkers."

The styles in France are much more simple than those of America—that is the dresses ones on the streets of the large cities. They are very plain, nearly everyone is wearing

The little French boys from six to ten or twelve looked odd in their black dresses—made father-Hubbard style—with about one-half an inch of trousers showing below.

The baby French autos—very tiny—were dodging about on the large military motor trucks which are mainly British and American.

Another surprise was the great number of German prisoners we passed when visiting the battlefields. We had heard that the Allies treated their prisoners well, but we never expected to find them in this sleek condition. They were helping to clean up the ruined cities; some whistling or singing as they worked; others resting by the roadside.

As we returned that night to Paris, from a distance, could see the sky above the city and the surrounding districts lit with shell-stars—the same as were used to light up the battle field at night. These remain in the air for quite some time, and very bright and bright, like huge electric light.

In Italy the number of well-dressed and healthy young men who came on board and spent two days with us on deck, as on hip lay in the harbor of Naples, trying to sell jewelry and "nick-knacks" and making themelves a general nuisance, surprised us greatly. We wondered that they had not found a more manly occupation. The only use of all they had for sale that I noticed was a pair of cuff links. They asked ten francs for those, but after a time came down to eight, and finally, two francs, which was all they would take. Thus one is forced to learn the art of Oriental bargaining.

We spent two days in Greece at the seaport of Pireus. Athens is only a few miles out, as we went out to see Mar's Hill where Paul preached. The ruins of the Acropolis is on the top of a small mountain, and Mar's Hill is a point of the same mountain, a little lower down. From here Paul could look down over the whole city of Athens, and also out over the cities and villages of the plains. It was surely a pulp to give one inspirations—the mountains hazy in the distance on one side and the blue water of the Mediterranean on the other! I could not help at feel by what another Paul is only needed there today.

Leaving here for Constantinople, we sailed along with the shores of Greece to the left, and Asia Minor and the plains of Troy to the right. One is more affected by what he feels than what he sees. Past history looms up dimly before the eye—cities that are dust and lands that long since lost a name.

And yet there is so much in the East that is untouched by time. A third or fourth city may take the place of the original, but, new or old, it is always the same. Change leaves it unchanged!

It was a bit of a disappointment to find, as we passed through the Dardanelles, along the shores of the Gallipoli peninsula, that the shores of Turkey in Europe are as barren and lonesome in appearance as those of Asia Minor. Trenches, forts, cannon and sunken battleships are still in evidence. What a bleak battle ground!

More, more than ever we realize, what a privilege it is to live in America—the land of luxury.

Constantinople, Sept. 3, 1919.

If you want a good heavy team of work horses, attend the Norman Weicker sale on Feb. 17th.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 11, 1920.

After all, what was the result of the probe into the retailer's prices of boots and shoes in Calgary last fall?

And what has become of the laboring man with the "full dinner pail" that we used to hear so much about a few years ago?

Are there any old timers present who remember when you could go to a restaurant and get "horm and"
for 25 cents?

Day by day and week by week the cost of living continues to mount higher and higher, while the politicians, in their usual windy manner, suggest methods to be adopted by the general public, such as economizing, raising more grain and stock, working harder and spending less, but fail to put a crimp in those responsible for the ever increasing cost of living. Necessities go up a few cents in price each week, thus making a gradual increase which is hardly noticeable, but which in a few weeks amounts to a good bit over former prices, yet there is no great complaint made by the general public, and conspicuous silence by the daily press. But let a labor union go after a 25 percent increase, or the farmers after a higher price for their product, and a terrible wail is the result. There is something funny about all this, but we fail to appreciate the joke.

AROUND THE TOWN

E. Smith and son will sell their live stock and machinery. February 18, J. N. Paton, auctioneer. Mr.
Smith and family are leaving for B.
C.

Prof. Turner of Calgary has accepted the position of principal of the Didsbury High School. Rev. Dr.
McGregor will take the French class.

Mr. Alvin Hunsperger left on Tuesday for a visit to friends at Al-sask, Alta. This is the first time in 26 years that Mr. Hunsperger has been out of the province.

Mr. W.A. O'Brien of Walton,
Nova Scotia, will arrive on March 1st to take possession of Mr. J.
Berscht's farm at Westcott. Mr. and Mrs. Berscht take a few months holidays visiting friends.

Mr. Russell who has recently taken over the bakery business of Mr.
Pattinson begs to intimate to the people of Didsbury and district that the place has undergone a thorough clean-up which will insure everything being made under the most sanitary conditions possible.

The W.C.T.U., of Didsbury and Westcott will hold a joint parlour meeting Tuesday, Feb. 17th at 2:30 at the Willard parlourage. A Francis Willard memorial program is being prepared to bring to our minds the good that has been done by her. All interested in W.C.T.U. work are heartily invited. A silver will be taken.

When you have exhausted the weather, crop prospects and the h.e.o.f. as topics of conversation, the movies make an excellent subject. Three Fingers Pete, the Terror of Bloody Gulch, is an interesting character; and isn't that film entitled "The Hired Girl's Revenge or Who Stabbed the Huckleberry Pie," just grand!

WHY YOU SHOULD BUILD ONLY FROM PLANS

Every building you put up this year and from now on should figure largely in your future.

Whether it be a new house or only a machine shed to will help you make money by saving it.

Just how much it will help depends on how well it fits into your needs now and later.

If you go ahead and build without any plan or any reference to future years and needs you are very likely to find that in a short time the building doesn't fit and you have to re-model, enlarge or build new.

WHATEVER YOU DECIDE TO BUILD GET A PLAN FOR IT, WE MAKE THEM FREE.

And just because it is a FREE service don't think that it isn't worth anything.

These plans are made to fit your ideas and your needs. They are made so that your buildings will be strong and durable and cost the least that they can be made to cost and be built right.

Just as soon as you decide to go ahead with any building see us at once for plans as well as material.

ELKTON NOTES

A number of the Elkton young people journeyed to Big Prairie to attend a dance last Friday night, returning with no less than four prizes. All report having had a good time.

Bob says no more male rides for him. Some ride, Bob!

Don't forget the big hop at Elkton Friday night.

We should like to know when they are going to start building the new hall. We think it is about time Ruby was giving us another dance.

Mr. Isom has been sporting himself lately. Come, Ivon, put us wise to what's doing!

Ben Bennett and family were visiting at Mr. Riemer's last Sunday.

A few more chinooks and the cars will be running again.

Mr. Krebs' threshing machine is humming these days.

The horse buyers are busy again, having bought a large number of horses around Elkton.

There is very little chance around Elkton for the Hun these days—too many returned men.

Miss Moon was one of the lucky young ladies to win a prize at Big Prairie.

Where are you going next Friday night? Why, to the dance at Elkton, where they always have a good time.

Highland News

Mose Olsen of Highland is expected home from the States soon.

Fred Admussen is hauling lumber to Didsbury these days.

There are several cases of distemper among the range horses. George Rhoades was obliged to kill one to stop the plague and Ben Luckehouse has a bad case of it among his horses.

Who says there is no trapping this winter. Martin Arneson has a fine large mink to add to his collection of furs.

Ira Gamble is working at the mill this winter.
